

Code of Conduct

Delivered by:
Gill Lungley BA(Hons) FSLCC

Wednesday 15th June 2022, 6pm – 8pm

Remote training using Zoom

This presentation will look at the relevant sections of the Localism Act 2011 and highlight the following –

- Expectations of your role as a parish or town councillor.
- The standards you are expected to hold and live up to.
- The basic requirements of your council's Code of Conduct.
- The difference between pre-determination and pre-disposition.
- The definition of 'interests', their registration and declaration.
- The process of applying for a dispensation.
- The consequences if anything goes wrong.

Gill has been involved with local councils since the early 1990's briefly as a parish councillor and then as the Clerk and RFO to a variety of parish and town councils across Worcestershire and the West Midlands.

Gill holds a BA (Hons) in Business Studies and has achieved the Cert HE in Local Policy Studies (the forerunner to today's Certificate in Local Council Administration – CiLCA - qualification) from Cheltenham and Gloucester College. Ongoing professional development has seen her gain the CiLCA 2012 additional requirement that enables the councils she works for to adopt the General Power of Competence and apply for the Local Council Award Scheme quality and quality gold levels where eligible.

Having worked alongside various local council trainers Gill added to her qualifications with PTTLS (Preparing to Teach in the Lifelong Learning Sector) to support the delivery of her informative training sessions. Gill is also a recognised trainer for CiLCA students.

Cost per delegate: Member £30
Link to SALC website for online booking form here